An exceptionally well restored and thoughtfully designed, reverse level three bedroom barn conversion situated in the hamlet of Trewennack. Offering an appealing blend of heritage that stays true to its' Grade II listed status whilst offering contemporary comfort and luxury, Chy Growan has been thoughtfully conceived with the reverse level living designed to take advantage of its naturally light and sunny aspect. Situated within an attractive cobbled enclave of restored barns, this semi-detached home showcases vaulted ceilings, exposed character beams, and stylish part oak doors, whilst a bespoke feature window enables light to flood in and provides an outlook towards Boskenwyn in the distance.

A stylish wood burning stove, with its exposed chimney style flue anchors the main living space with warmth and architectural flair.

The craftsmanship continues throughout, from the beautifully appointed contemporary kitchen with quartz worktops to the bespoke part oak staircase that descends to the bedrooms and a well appointed en suite and family bathroom.. Outside an enclosed lawned front garden enjoys a sunny aspect whilst to the rear a cobbled courtyard and meticulously pointed stonework remain true to the history and character of the barn.

Conveniently positioned for Helston and adjacent to the main road to Truro, and the University at Tremough, with three allocated off road parking spaces, this exceptional conversion offers a rare opportunity to enjoy the character and authentic feel of a barn conversion without compromising on modern living.

Every detail has been carefully considered by a well regarded local developer, resulting in a home that feels both timeless and effortlessly modern

The accommodation in brief comprises a lounge, kitchen / dining area, a family bathroom and three bedrooms (master en suite). The barn benefits from double glazing and oil fired central heating.

Trewennack is a rural hamlet a short distance from the market town of Helston. The hamlet is renowned for its well established horticultural show. More extensive amenities can be found in the nearby town of Helston with many national stores, supermarkets, cinema, sports centre, with indoor swimming pool, and both primary and secondary schooling.
