- EPC E48

Situated in the well regarded residential area of Mill Close, in the Cornish fishing village of Porthleven is this detached, three bedroom bungalow. The residence, which has been greatly enhanced by the current owner is well presented with recently fitted kitchen, bathroom and shower room. Benefiting from oil fired central heating and double glazing, the property is cradled by its gardens which are mainly laid to lawn with well established plants and shrubs. To the side of the property a driveway leads to a detached garage.

In brief, the accommodation comprises an open plan kitchen/diner, side porch/utility room, lounge, sun room, inner hall, bathroom, shower room and three bedrooms.

Porthleven is a vibrant, picturesque fishing village and mainland Britain's most southerly port. The village is renowned for its many highly regarded restaurants, long beach, surfing, rugged coastline and clifftop walks. Community groups are thriving within the village with sports' clubs and a prize winning brass band which can be heard echoing around the harbour on many a summer's Sunday evening. Local amenities include shops, Public Houses, galleries, supermarket, doctors' surgery and a well regarded primary school.

The more extensive amenities of Helston, with national stores, cinema, leisure centre with indoor swimming pool and secondary schooling are just a few miles away. On the outskirts of Porthleven is the Penrose Estate which is run by the National Trust and provides delightful walks around Loe Pool which is Cornwall's largest natural freshwater lake.
