An opportunity to purchase a nicely presented two-bedroom house with a delightful mature garden backing onto open countryside, situated within the popular village of St. Keverne.

The property has been much enhanced during our clients' ownership and benefits from oil-fired central heating and double glazing.

The accommodation briefly comprises, on the ground floor, an entrance hallway, lounge, and a nicely fitted kitchen leading through to a triple-aspect conservatory enjoying an outlook over the garden and adjoining countryside, together with a cloakroom. On the first floor there are two bedrooms and a well-appointed shower room.

Outside, the property enjoys a mature rear garden, offering a good degree of privacy and backing directly onto open fields.

Prospective purchasers should be aware the property is subject to a Local Area Restriction, requiring a buyer to have lived or worked within Cornwall for the previous three years.

St. Keverne is located on the eastern side of the Lizard Peninsula, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty renowned for its unspoilt scenery. The village offers a good range of amenities catering for everyday needs, including a doctor's surgery, general stores, two public houses, church, primary school and butchers.

The surrounding area boasts miles of open countryside, with a beach at the nearby fishing village of Coverack, while the South West Coast Path is close at hand, providing spectacular coastal walks.

A more comprehensive range of amenities can be found in Helston, approximately ten miles distant, including national retailers, a cinema and a sports centre with indoor swimming pool.
