A nicely presented three-bedroom mid-terrace property, ideally situated within a popular residential area in the highly regarded rural village of St Keverne.

The property benefits from modern air source heating and double glazing.

Local Area Restriction: The property is subject to a local area restriction. In essence, purchasers are required to have lived or worked in Cornwall for a continuous period of last three years in order to qualify to purchase.

The property offers well-proportioned and versatile accommodation arranged over two floors. To the ground floor an entrance hallway leads to a useful cloakroom, comfortable living room featuring a wood-burning stove, and a nicely fitted kitchen with adjoining utility room.

On the first floor are three bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, the property benefits from gardens to both the front and rear. The enclosed rear garden provides a private and attractive outdoor space, together with a useful garden pod offering occasional storage or a potential workspace. There is a driveway with a parking space.

St Keverne is a well-established and sought-after village with an excellent range of local amenities, including a post office, doctor's surgery, general store, restaurant, two public houses, church, primary school and butcher. The surrounding countryside provides wonderful opportunities for walking and enjoying the spectacular Cornish coastline.

For a wider range of amenities, the market town of Helston is approximately 10 miles away and offers a variety of national retailers, cinema, leisure facilities and an indoor swimming pool.
